AmericInn of Jonesborough Celebrates Grand Opening

Lodge & Suites to Host Open House June 1, 2006

Chanhassen, MN (May 17, 2006)...The owners, management and staff of the areas newest hotel will host a grand opening event June 1, 2006 from 4:00-7:00 pm at the AmericInn of Jonesborough, Tennessee. Located at 376 East Jackson Boulevard, the 60-room hotel opened March 16, 2006. The property ownership group, Blue Sky Hospitality, LLC and management company, Three Rivers Hospitality, LLC are pleased to open the chain's first hotel in Tennessee and invite the local community to attend the open house event with hotel tours, prize giveaways and refreshments.

The AmericInn Lodging System is committed to providing upscale lodging with exceptional service to each and every guest. "I'm confident that the new AmericInn will not only meet, but will exceed guest expectations with upscale amenities, consistent services and a quality product," said Tim McGuire, area manager for Three Rivers Hospitality, LLC. The new AmericInn of Jonesborough proudly provides guests with a home away from home atmosphere and those 'something extras' that makes every stay enjoyable. "Delivering hospitality excellence is our primary focus and it's our pleasure to be the first AmericInn to bring this service to the Jonesborough community and traveling guests," adds McGuire.

The AmericInn of Jonesborough offers guests a lodging experience with all the charm and comforts of home. Complete with upscale amenities including a business center and free high speed internet access, guests may choose from a wide variety of oversized guest rooms and specialty suites with whirlpool and fireplace accommodations. Catering to all age groups, the new AmericInn also features an expanded pool and whirlpool all under a vaulted wood beam ceiling. A two-story lobby highlighting the cozy fireside conversation area and the enhanced continental breakfast offered daily, are just a few of the first-rate amenities consistently found at AmericInn. For reservations please call 423-753-3100, 800-634-3444 or visit www.americinn.com.
